

Instructions for groups

BEFORE THE VISIT

- All guided tours are booked through our online system. The confirmation message includes a link for completing a list of names of all visitors, which must be completed 3 days before the visit.
- The contact person to the group is responsible for only visitors on the list coming in with the group, and that all visitors are familiar with the following instructions.
- All physical disabilities must be notified of in advance, as the route of the tour includes multiple staircases. Please include all possible accessibility requests. We can provide additional service to visitors with limited sight. Push chairs and strollers are not allowed on tour.
- Please inform the guides if your group is meeting a MP in the “additional information” field. All such meetings are scheduled after the tour.
- Please reserve one hour for the tour. All guided tours are free of charge.

DAY OF VISIT

- All visitors to the Parliament House are subject to a security check, similar to that of airports. All belongings are screened and every visitor enters through a metal detector.
- Examples of prohibited items in the Parliament House:
 - × sharp objects (e.g. scissors, knives, Swiss army knives)
 - × flammable and toxic materials, pepper sprays
- Please mind that no food is allowed on the tour, and no liquids in the public gallery of the Plenary Hall.
- Even visitors to the Parliament must dress appropriately. All hats and caps must be left at the entrance.
- Guided tours are arranged during the Parliament work. Because of this visitors should avoid loud noise and disturbing behavior and mobile phones must be on silent. Teachers are responsible for the appropriate behavior of their students, and all groups must adhere to the personnel’s instructions.
- Photography is allowed inside the Parliament House.
- The visitor entrance B is to the north of the main entrance, on the Mannerheimintie side of the building (see map). The group must be at the entrance at the scheduled time.
